

Ash Devine

Music for Folk

Biography

Ash Devine is an internationally touring award-winning songwriter, Appalachian style folk musician, song leader, teaching artist and humanitarian clown based in the Blue Ridge region of Asheville, North Carolina. Ash's musical style spans several genres of contemporary folk and Americana, traditional Appalachian music, old time country, blues, and world music. Her concerts speak to a wide audience, incorporating original pieces with traditional music, cleverly improvised songs and audience participation. Her music is an authentic and unique representation of both contemporary and traditional Appalachian music and songwriting.

In 2015 Ash was musical director for the play "Esley: The Life and Music of Leslie Riddle", in which she also played the role of Maybelle Carter. Grammy artist David Holt describes her musical approach as "driving and authentic".

A typical concert will include a some original songs, some Appalachian folk tunes and some old country / blues favorites. She's got three hours of original repertoire or select cover songs/ public domain traditional songs. Artists covered include: Hank Williams, Patsy Cline, Doc Watson, Woody Guthrie, Pete Seeger, Leslie Riddle, Traditional APP- folk songs, Irish folk, The Carter Family and Frank Sinatra and more. Set lists can be tailored to the venue's request . Contact us for more information.

Ash's heartfelt and charismatic music is quickly capturing the hearts of fans world wide.

"Ash Devine's voice whispers like a backwoods wind, winding down an old timey road"
-Beth Simpson, Producer and Theater Artist

"Her fingerpicking sounds just like Maybelle Carter and her voice is reminciest of that classic folk sound!" -Sheila Kay Adams- Hertiage Award, Smithsonian Folkways Award Recipient

"Ash did a great job of re-creating that driving Carter family sound"
- David Holt, Grammy Nominee and Folk Musician
